

HIATUS

TEQUILA

TWO MASTERS, ONE SPIRIT

HIATUS + CHANDLER

KRISTOPHER DESOTO, FOUNDER OF HIATUS TEQUILA, HAS PARTNERED WITH MICHAEL CHANDLER, AMERICAN MIXED MARTIAL ARTIST, TO REDEFINE WHAT A CELEBRITY PARTNERSHIP CAN LOOK LIKE IN THE SPIRITS INDUSTRY.

Their mission is to change the narrative by emphasizing authenticity, cultural respect, and uncompromised quality. Chandler's success stems from hard work and dedication to his career; Kristopher's passion echoes these same values, embracing an integrity to the history and culture of tequila.

Chandler isn't merely endorsing Hiatus; he's invested in the brand because of the commitment to crafting tequila the traditional way - with a deep respect for the culture, hard work, and dedication to authenticity and quality.

Hiatus Tequila is inspired by tradition, with the intention to uphold the legacy of crafting tequila the way it is meant to be - bursting with clean, agave flavors and aromas that are natural, robust and expressive. Kristopher and Chandler are bringing this honest and straightforward message to the spirits industry.

MICHAEL CHANDLER

Michael Chandler is a prominent American Mixed Martial Artist (MMA) known for his explosive fighting style. Born on April 24, 1986, in High Ridge, Missouri, he gained fame competing in various organizations before making a significant impact in the UFC. Chandler, a former NCAA Division I wrestler, has showcased his versatility and knockout power, earning accolades as a three-time Bellator Lightweight Champion. His relentless pursuit of victory and memorable performances have solidified his status as a formidable force in the highly competitive world of UFC lightweight division.